About GST:

Goods and Services Tax (GST) is a significant tax reform that was implemented in India on July 1, 2017. It is a single tax on the supply of goods and services throughout the country. It was designed to eliminate multiple taxes and levies imposed by different states, making the tax system simpler and transparent. The introduction of GST has helped in simplifying the tax system and reducing the burden on businesses.

Objectives of the workshop:
The workshop aims to enable students to understand GST, its impact on businesses, and its benefits for the economy. It also aims to strengthen students’ knowledge of GST, its implementation, and its impacts on various sectors.
