1. What is Ragging?
Ragging is defined by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in SLP No. 24295 of 2006 dated 16-05-2007 and in Civil Appeal number 887 of 2009, dated 08-05-2009 as “Any disorderly conduct whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other student, indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which causes or likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such student will not do in the ordinary course and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or a junior student.”

2. RGI's stand on Ragging:
Ragging is termed as a social evil which predominates mainly the Higher Educational Institutions and is a cognizable offence under the law. No conscious and wise person will ever hesitate to fight against it.

Royal Group of Institutions is also not lagging behind to join this mission to eradicate the social evil from the society and pledges to have a “Complete Ragging Free” Institution at all spheres. This will, no doubt, guarantee equal opportunities and highest regard for human rights which is considered as the most important milestone towards effective learning and acquiring practical knowledge. In this context, RGI has decided to implement the recommendation of the Hon'ble Supreme Court along with those of Assam Legislative Assembly and UGC/AICTE/ Affiliating University.
